FIRM RESPONSIBILITIES

Sophia is a designer involved with several projects in schematic design, construction documents, and construction administration phases. She has been integral in setting the design vision and carrying through production and CA on sensitive infill multi-family developments. She is currently working as a Designer on 1701 El Camino Real, a 67-unit affordable housing project located in Mountain View, California.

PERSONAL PROFILE

Sophia is a native of the Bay area and developed an interest in architecture while traveling with her family at a young age. She decided to pursue architecture after volunteering for a summer at a skills training center for the blind and visually impaired. Sophia believes in design that is both beautiful and universal. Prior to receiving her Bachelor of Architecture degree from California Polytechnic University San Luis Obispo and joining VMWP, she worked in single family residential and commercial projects around the Bay Area. During her free time, she enjoys traveling, riding her motorcycle around the city, rock climbing, and backpacking.
