PERSONAL PROFILE

Natacha grew up in Kigali, Rwanda known as a country of thousand hills. She lived in Sacramento for seven years, where she did her community college and worked as a proctor, help desk, and Intervention Specialist. Natacha also worked as a French and Math tutor before transferring to California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo, where she graduated. She was fortunate to participate in a six-month internship at Van Meter Williams Pollack during her time at Cal Poly. Natacha enjoyed learning and contributing to some of the projects in the firm, and she has joined the firm after earning her Bachelor of Architecture. Her interest lies in designs that prioritize humans' needs. Natacha likes dancing to different dance styles mainly Afrobeat and her traditional dance since they both involve drums. She also loves hiking, drawing, and spending time in nature.
